YOUNG ACTORS STUDIO by Sarah Sturm, age 11, a YAS student for 6 years

I have made many friends during my 6 years in YAS. During that time, I have also been in a few main stage shows at the Playhouse: Bye Bye Birdie, Cinderella, and Oliver! I love this acting camp because you meet great people through the theatre and it allows you to express yourself in many ways...it's wonderful! I like the acting portion of YAS because the skits are usually pretty fun and you are free to move around and put a lot of yourself into it. I have had a lot of dance experience at other schools and have brought what I learned to this camp. The camp session is theme-based and year after year, I look forward to the choices they come up with. We were sad to see Jim Tully resign as director of YAS this past summer, but look forward to another summer with all the fun it brings. Thanks to Jim Tully, Pam Rice, Erin McMaster and Christine Rizzolo for a wonderful camp experience this past summer.

HARRY LARGE

Harry became active at the Playhouse in the mid to late 1980's. Regularly on the Board of Directors, Harry was someone you could go to for advice and wisdom. He was never preachy and would always respect the decisions made by the entire Board. His Southern expressions and comments bring a smile to everyone's face! The biggest compliment to give Harry is that he is someone that you want to be like when you grow up...wise, respected, energetic, supportive, and very giving of his time and energy. The Pennsylvania Playhouse is extremely lucky to have Harry and his wife, Sue, share their time with us. The South lost again when Harry moved to Bethlehem, Pennsylvania!!

Harry was feted at the annual Playhouse picnic in September, where he received an engraved crystal paperweight to mark the occasion and a cake to let him know that we are just wild about him!!

At right, Harry is congratulated by Board of Directors President, Dan Lewis.

Playhouse Beautification Project

Come and see the changes at Pennsylvania Playhouse: We have planted new flowers, put on a new roof, painted the lobby, and carpeted the lobby and the theater!

Thanks for all who have helped our theatre look like new...
